

ESFRI-FED PROGRAMME

IN SUPPORT OF THE VALORISATION OF FEDERAL
COMPONENTS IN ESFRI DISTRIBUTED AND VIRTUAL
INFRASTRUCTURES
PHASE 1 – [2021-2025]

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR EVALUATORS

FOREWORD

The steps of the evaluation-selection procedure are described in the Information File and Submission-Evaluation Guidelines:

- Written (individual) evaluation
- Panel interview evaluation
- Selection of proposals

This document contains the eligibility criteria for ESFRI-FED experts taking part in the written (individual) evaluation and the panel interview evaluation phases of the procedure.

ESFRI-FED proposals will be evaluated by 4 experts chosen by BELSPO based on the content of the Expressions of Interest submitted by the applicants.

The names of the evaluators will not be made known to the other evaluators or to the applicants until the panel interview takes place.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The experts must meet the following criteria:

- Be outstanding and internationally (well) recognised in their knowledge of ESFRI
- Be able to evaluate (as much as possible) all the aspects covered by the proposal
- Be free of conflict of interest (see 'Conflict of interest', infra)

BELSPO will not consider experts who fail to comply with all criteria.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Experts are considered to have a conflict of interest if they stand to profit professionally, financially or personally from approval or rejection of an application.

More specifically, this means eligible experts must:

- Have no direct link with the project.
- Not be involved in the preparation of the EoI and/or the full proposal.
- Not benefit from the acceptance of the proposal.
- Not be a family member or partner relative to the first degree of any of the applicants.
- Not belong to applicants' institutions.
- Not be a director, a trustee or a partner of the applicants' institutions.
- Not be in any other situation which compromises or casts a doubt on his or her ability to evaluate the proposal impartially, or that could reasonably appear to do so in the eyes of an external third party.

Any other potential conflict of interest will be disclosed by the evaluators.

No evaluator having declared a conflict of interest for a specific proposals will be in charge of drafting the Consensus Report of that proposal.
